

Save the date to be with us in Bahrain

16th & 17th of November 2018

The Middle East IB Association (MEIBA) in collaboration with Ibn Khuldoon National School – Bahrain are pleased to announce hosting an IB Forum that will be held in Bahrain on the 16th and 17th of November 2018.

The first day of the Forum is going to focus on providing the participants with a better understanding of the core of the IB programs (PYP, MYP, DP and CP) and to tackle the updates and development of the IB programs with focus on the PYP and MYP enhancement, some of the sessions are going to be presented by IB Lead Educator.

The second day is going to focus on sharing best practices related to the importance of Mother Tongue and Arabic Language.

We are asking schools to send us their experiences and best practices in implementing the IB programs, ex. Bilingualism, internationalism, how schools managed local requirements with IB programs, approaches to teaching and learning or any other experience that would be worth sharing.

We encourage schools to provide us with their experiences in implementing the Arabic Language. You are kindly requested to send us your experiences by August 15, 2018, it is going to be a 60min session and can be offered in Arabic Language.

This Forum will be of an interest to IB leaders, teachers and coordinators, and it is open to all schools in the middle east.

Further details on the event with the full programme and registration details will be announced soon.
